

Family HealthCare Center

With the decrease in federal and state funding for social service programs, Institute training has been invaluable in assisting FHC find alternate funding to continue providing services to the underserved.

- Patricia Patron, Executive Director